Tennyson Center partners in protecting Colorado's children:

Robert "Chopper" Travaglini 1932 - 1999

Chopper Travaglini will no doubt be remembered as a Denver legend, but his commitment to children will also survive him. One of Denver's biggest advocates for kids, Chopper soothed the pain of many young people during his long stint as a Denver Nuggets trainer. Through the Chopper Travaglini Memorial Golf Tournament, his legacy of kindness and self-determination lives on.

RE/MAX International & Sanctuary Golf Course

Sanctuary, a private, 220-acre course south of Denver owned by Dave and Gail Liniger, founders of RE/MAX International, has helped organizations raise more than $28 million since opening its doors to fundraising events in 1997. Golf enthusiasts of all levels enjoy its pristine playing surface, surrounded by native trees and grasses and home to golden eagles, elk and fox.
