Highlights of 2005

2005 proved to be one of the most successful years in the history of Tennyson Center for Children, albeit a very interesting one. Our first year as an independently operated non-profit agency, we were reminded that miracles really do exist when our campus and buildings were placed on the auction block by our former parent organization. At the last minute and when all hope seemed lost, the Gary-Williams Foundation stepped forward and purchased the property, thus ensuring that we will be able to serve the children of the Rocky Mountain region for many years to come.

In 2005, we served 672 children and over 1,500 families through our Residential, Education, Day Treatment, Community-Based, Special Services and Satellite Day Treatment programs.

More than 1,300 volunteers helped us fulfill our mission by donating over 14,000 hours of service in a variety of capacities, including teacher assistants, administrative help, event planning and coordination as well as the mentoring of children. As always, our corps of volunteers is one of our most valuable assets at Tennyson Center for Children.

Our cooperative efforts with the media in 2005 helped spread the word throughout the community about Tennyson Center for Children and our service to kids and families. Through television appearances, radio broadcasts and numerous articles appearing in a variety of publications, an aggressive community awareness campaign brought Tennyson Center for Children into the spotlight once again.

The 2005 Golf Tournament

2005 was an amazing year for special events and fundraising events at Tennyson Center for Children. Once again, the Chopper Travaglini Memorial Golf Tournament brought business dignitaries, media celebrities and special guests together at Sanctuary Golf Course in Sedalia for the common goal of furthering our mission as well as promoting the agency, raising over $350,000.

Challenge-By-Choice

The Challenge-By-Choice program at Tennyson Center for Children offers kids in our residential treatment program the opportunity to engage in a month-long series of personal challenges in the mountains of Colorado. The program, whose primary purpose is to build a child's self-esteem and confidence, culminates with a climb of over 14,000 feet to the summit of Colorado's highest peak, Mt. Elbert.

2005 marked the first time in the history of the agency where all ten children who started the program saw the challenge to its completion.

Operation Santa '04

Prior to arriving at Tennyson Center for Children, many of the children we serve have never experienced the joys of the holiday season. Operation Santa gives us the chance to ensure that they're given more than just gifts; they're given positive and rewarding memories of the warmth and love that the holiday season brings along with the reassurance that they are loved.

Our annual holiday toy-drive was once again a huge success with numerous individual and corporate supporters helping us fulfill the wish-lists of our children as well as our cottages, classrooms and programs.

Our Gala Fundraising Events

Each year, supporters of Tennyson Center for Children don their best evening attire and gather for one of three regional gala dinners, held in Denver, Ft. Collins and Colorado Springs.

Each spring, Tennyson Center for Children benefits from the annual Wine Tasting for Charity event held at Morton's, The Steakhouse in downtown Denver. The 2005 event was a huge success bringing community and business leaders, dignitaries, and celebrities together in support of Tennyson Center.
