Residential - Tennyson Center for Children (TCC) offers five residential cottages providing milieu therapy and individualized treatment plans for male and female youth ages 5 to 18 years old with a community-based and family-focused perspective. The programming utilizes interventions focused on areas of therapy, education, health, recreation spiritual growth, social skill development, independent living skills and healthy relationships. The trauma informed care and strengths-based treatment philosophy is integrated through all components of treatment. Focus remains on shorter lengths of stay and bridging services of care to lower levels so that families may be reunified or that youth may move or return to a natural community setting. Experiential learning, milieu activities and the volunteer program allow the needed community integration for the youth to practice new skills. One of the five cottage programs, Stepping Stones, continues to service the adolescent population requiring emergence care during crisis, stabilization to return to the community, or more comprehensive long-term individualized care. Huston Cottage provides emergency respite and residential care for youths ages five to fourteen.

Staff utilizes the family systems approach, focusing on the family and their adaptation to the community. Treatment interventions include therapy, case management, behavior management support, and advocacy. Spanish speaking and culturally-specific home based services can be provided by our team of bilingual staff. The program Home Environment Alternative to Residential Treatment (HEART) continues to see increased demand and demonstrated successes. Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - The intended use of TCC's endowment fund is to provide a permanent source of income for use in achieving the organization's mission, with the principal kept intact in perpetuity and invested to obtain a prudent return as income.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - TCC is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction. Accordingly, the organization's financial statements contain no provision for income taxes. However, income from activities not directly related to the organization's tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. During 2013 and 2012, the organization did not incur any unrelated business income tax. TCC follows guidance related to the uncertainty in income taxes. After evaluating the tax positions taken, none are considered to be uncertain; therefore, no amounts have been recognized as of September 30, 2013 or 2012. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions would be recorded in the period assessed as other operating expense. No interest or penalties have been assessed as of September 30, 2013. Tax years that remain subject to examination include 2010 through 2012.
